The Working with Children Check

I certify that I am an "employer" as defined in Section 33 of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 who engages people, on a paid and/or voluntary basis, in child-related employment, ie, employment that involves direct contact with children where the contact is not directly supervised.

I am aware that under the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998 I must submit the names and details of individuals I plan to engage in paid primary child-related employment or as a minister of religion or foster carer, as listed in Section 3 of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 to a certified Approved Screening Agency for employment screening.

I understand that I will also have the option, through my designated Approved Screening Agency, to screen other employees and volunteers engaged by my organisation in child-related employment (once the voluntary phase of the employment screening process is commenced).

The Approved Screening Agency with which I wish to register with is:
